Health AND Tobacco

1. Tobacco Control Policies, Birth Outcomes, and Maternal Human Capital
Markowitz, Sara; Adams, E Kathleen; Dietz, Patricia M; Kannan, Viji; Tong, Van T. Journal of Human Capital 7.2 (Jul 2013): 130-160.

...health effects for babies, yet many women smoke during pregnancy. In this paper, states significantly changed their tobacco control policies. Results show that

Citation/Abstract

2. Health Selection and the Effect of Smoking on Mortality

...individuals who are in poorer health, independently from smoking...to smoke more cigarettes than those with better non-smoking-related health. We and mortality. We show that health-based selection into smoking

Citation/Abstract

3. The Relationship between Smoking, Quitting Smoking and Obesity in Australia: A Seemingly Unrelated Probit Approach

...obesity and the propensity to smoke and to quit smoking, using a Seemingly...heterogeneity. Using Australian health survey data, this article demonstrates...males. These findings suggest that health policies targeted at one risk factor

Citation/Abstract

4. Explaining Local Manufacturing Growth in Chile: The Advantages of Sectoral Diversity
Almeida, Rita; Fernandes, Ana M. Applied Economics 45.16-18 (Jun 2013): 2201-2213.

...obesity and the propensity to smoke and to quit smoking, using a Seemingly...heterogeneity. Using Australian health survey data, this article demonstrates...males. These findings suggest that health policies targeted at one risk factor

Citation/Abstract

5. "This Is Not a Burning Issue for Me": How Citizens Justify Their Use of Wood Heaters in a City with a Severe Air Pollution Problem
Reeve, Ian; Scott, John; Hine, Donald W; Bhullar, Navjot. Energy Policy 57 (Jun 2013): 204-211.

...smoke pollution has been linked to health problems, wood burning remains a...where wood smoke levels regularly exceed national health advisory limits. We

Citation/Abstract

6. Racial/Ethnic and Nativity Patterns of U.S. Adolescent and Young Adult Smoking

...young adults using the 2006 Tobacco Use Supplement to the Current Population...overall U.S. smoking prevalence and smoking-attributable health disparities.

Citation/Abstract